Re: Consent for Access to Parking Lot

Dear Mary:

As you requested in your June 6, 2000, e-mail to me, attached is a Consent for Access to Property executed on behalf of River East Land, L.L.C., for access to the parking lot bounded by McClurg Court (to the West), Illinois Street (to the South), the Kraft Building (to the East) and Grand Avenue (to the North), Chicago, Illinois. I slightly revised the Consent for Access form that you provided along with your e-mail.

Please let me know when you plan on conducting the survey of the parking lot, as it is managed by Standard Parking to whom we need to give notice of the survey activity. In addition, we would like to participate in the walk-over survey through one of our consultants and need advance notice of the survey date for this purpose as well. Please call with any questions.

Sincerely,

Vincent S. Oleszkiewicz

CONSENT FOR ACCESS TO PROPERTY

Name: River East Land, L.L.C.

Address of Property: Parking lot bounded by McClurg Court (to the West), Illinois Street (to the South), the Kraft Building (to the East) and Grand Avenue (to the North)
Chicago, Illinois

I consent to officers, employees, contractors, and authorized representatives of the United States Environmental Protection Agency (U.S. EPA) entering and having continued access to this property for the following purposes:

Conducting sampling and investigatory activity on the property;

Performing other actions to investigate potential contamination on the property that U.S. EPA may determine to be necessary; and Taking any response action to address any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, pollutant or contaminant which U.S. EPA determines may pose an imminent and substantial endangerment to the public health or the environment.

I realize that these actions taken by U.S. EPA are undertaken pursuant to its response and enforcement responsibilities under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601-9601-9675 (1997).

This written permission is given voluntarily on behalf of River East Land, L.L.C., owner of this property, with knowledge of a right to refuse access and without threats or promises of any kind.
